Tender: Fachinformationen / Country Reports Mining Portfolio

The CCMR expanded its mining portfolio by 7 countries in the region of Southern Africa. Therefore, the CCMR needs data, research and analytics about the mining industry in the particular countries. Reliable market information and its interpretation is key. The country risk and industry research (mining) is not limited to, but must include the following:

- General conditions of the country, including global/regional context, economically, politically, trade and infrastructure.
- Geological overview (descriptive) and its interpretation (analytical) including forecast for future developments.
- Regulatory Framework in the mining industry including taxes, royalties, registration processes etc.
- Overview about current and future mining-related projects.
- Overview about the major players (mining houses, institutions etc.) in the market.
- Country Risk / Opportunity Analysis

Countries of interest: Angola, Botswana, Central African Republic, Lesotho, Mozambique, Namibia and Tanzania.

Depending on your expertise, you may pitch for the entire country portfolio (7 countries) or a selection of the countries mentioned above.

Comment: It is crucial that the provided research is reliable and up-to-date. The content, quality and sources will be checked by the CCMR constantly.

Please do not hesitate to contact the CCMR for further information.
